

Costume-Con 30

May 11-14, 2012 ☞ Phoenix, AZ

QUILT CONTEST

GUIDELINES:

Size - No Minimum size; Maximum is twin-bed size (or a cumulative total of 160”).

Theme - Anything is fine, although science fiction, fantasy, and costume themes are encouraged; and Wild West/Steampunk themes are highly encouraged.

Pattern - Any pattern is fine, whether published or original.

Stitching - Handwork and machinework are both acceptable. Quilts must have a 3” deep hanging sleeve on the top back side in order to be hung for exhibit.

Misc. Bits - Any theme, colors, embellishments or fabrics are allowable. Entries must meet the definition of a quilt: top, batting, and backing held together with stitching. The entry may be the product of a group of quilters. Wearable Art is also able to be entered into the Quilt Contest!

Entrants must have at least a supporting membership to CC30 ($25) to enter this contest; but are not required to attend the convention to win.

Getting Your Quilted Entry to the Convention - Mail-ins are accepted and highly encouraged: even if you are attending the con, if you can to get it to me early, great! The deadline for mail-in work is currently TBD, however not less than 2 weeks prior to the start of CC30. If I haven't received it by the end of that day, it won't be exhibited unless you bring it with you and hand it to me at the Con. If you get it mailed to me by the deadline, I hope to have some nice signage listing the entry titles and creators. (Mailing address will be provided once you reserve a p'ce in the show.)

If you will be attending, you may enter your quilt at the Con. I plan to have an area for someone to accept it at the Con Registration area on Thurs. and Friday, they will have registration paperwork available. But please still contact me in advance, so I know to expect your entry. Please safety pin your entry form to the back of the quilt before submission. Legibility counts, please!

For your quilt, I need one specific contact person listed, with name and address. Email address is fantastic. All the contributors to each quilt must be listed.

The pattern source is required, though: if it isn't completely original, please list the sources. If your design is inspired by something in particular, please note that in the Quilt Description area.

Getting Your Quilted Entry Back from the Convention - If you are not attending the Con and do not have someone who is able to pick up your quilt for you, I will return mailed-in quilts within about 10 days after the event. Please be sure to include return postage. Pre-paid labels for USPS Flat Rate boxes are perfect for this!
