

Welcome to Miss Elaine's Old West Saloon

AKA Costume-Con's 30th Anniversary Friday Night Social

Picture yourself in a classic TV Western.
What character are you?

It's been a long hot day, and you really need some libation to wash the trail dust out of your mouth, so you belly up to the bar. As you look around there's

Prospectors

Cowboys

Gamblers

A piano player

Dance hall girls (oh, la la!)

Bartenders (gotta wet your whistle!)

Howdy everybody!

This is the not-to-be-missed social of the year celebrating the Old West.

There's even steampunk mixed in for good measure.

Our theme is

How the West was Won.....NOT!

So break out those

cowboy boots

western shirts

ten gallon hats

even guns - no live ammo please

but don't forget your favorite goggles

And other steam punk accessories

Come on down and have some fun - starts around 7pm ish

Just watch out for the Marshall.

I hear he's got a thing for Miss Elaine, the owner of the saloon and star of the show.
